We stand by every commitment with precision, and every project is followed through with care. We prefer to let our results speak for themselves, with a continued focus on delivering excellence.

We are active, efficient, and ready to make a difference.

DACTA BROADCAST is more than a continuation of a legacy — it represents a new, independent chapter with a forward-looking mindset.

The legal challenges faced by other entities are not ours. Our story is different — one of trustworthiness, growth, and excellence.

We're looking ahead: investing in research, quality, and people, with the clear goal of delivering increasingly powerful tools and services for a world that moves fast.

To all of you at 2025 NAB Show: with DACTA BROADCAST, you can count on a partner who is present, who innovates, and who believes in your work.

With a stable foundation and a dedicated team, DACTA BROADCAST is ready to support the future of the industry
